2. The results of local assessments, screening, or monitoring tools;
3. State assessments, as applicable;
4. The overall academic achievement of the student;
5. The student's likelihood of success with more difficult material if promoted to the next grade;
6. The student's attendance record; and

WHEREAS, the same Tennessee State Board of Education policy notes that "Retention shall be considered only when it is in the best interests of the student;" and
